Privacy Statement – Permanent Candidates

The information we collect about you is processed in line with the General Data Protection Regulation and our Data Protection Policies.

This Privacy Notice is in compliance with our duty to inform Data Subjects of our processing activities.

What categories of Personal Data do we process?

We process the following kinds of information in relation to these Data Subjects above:

- Personal contact details such as name, title, address, telephone numbers, and personal email addresses
- Signature
- Date of birth
- Nationality
- National Insurance number
- Annual leave booked
- Copies of driving licence and passport
- Details of qualifications and copies of certificates
- Reference details and their opinions about your performance in former roles
- Recruitment information (including copies of right to work documentation, work history, previous salary, reason for leaving, notice period, and other information included in a CV or cover letter or as part of the application process together with our notes)

We may also collect, store and use the following “special categories” of more sensitive personal information in line with our Processing Sensitive Data Policy:

- Information about your health, including any medical condition, health and sickness records
- Information about criminal convictions and offences

Why do we process this information?

We will use the types of personal information specified above in the following circumstances:

1. Where we need to comply with our legal obligations.
2. Where it is necessary for our legitimate interests (or those of a third party) and your interests and fundamental rights do not override those interests.

Situations in which we will use your personal information

We need the categories of information in the list above primarily to allow us to perform our contract with you and to enable us to comply with legal obligations.

In some cases we may use your personal information to pursue legitimate interests of our own or those of third parties, provided your interests and fundamental rights do not override those interests. The situations in which we will process your personal information are listed below.

- Placing you with our hirers
- Enabling checks that you are legally entitled to work in the UK
- Assessing qualifications for a particular position
- Ascertaining your fitness to work
- Complying with health and safety obligations
- To prevent fraud
- To enable and promote compliance with employer's duty of care and duty to consider work related adjustments where required under the Equality Act 2010
- To enable and promote compliance with safeguarding duties regarding vulnerable adults and / or children

Some of the above grounds for processing will overlap and there may be several grounds which justify our use of your personal information.

We will only use your personal information for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If we need to use your personal information for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.

Where did we collect this data from?

Unless indicated below, the Personal Data was collected from the Data Subject during the application process.

Describe the source for any Personal Data not collected from the Data Subject:

- The Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS)
- Referees
- Former employees or workers who may have recommended you

Are you under any obligation to provide the Personal Data?

Where we process Personal Data to comply with our legal obligations Data Subjects must provide this information. If you fail to provide certain information when requested, we may not be able to perform a contract we have entered into with the hirer, or we may be prevented from complying with our legal obligations, or we may be prevented from achieving our legitimate interests.

Who do we share this information with?

The following activities are carried out by third-party service providers: IT services, outsourced data protection consultancy, legal advisors and accountancy services.

All our third-party service providers and other entities in the group are required to take appropriate security measures to protect your personal information in line with our policies. We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes. We only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

We may share your personal information with other third parties, for example in the context of the possible sale or restructuring of the business. We may also need to share your personal information with a regulator or to otherwise comply with the law.

We will not transfer your personal information outside the EU.

Will the information be used for automated decision making or profiling?

You will not be subject to decisions that will have a significant impact on you based solely on automated decision-making, unless we have a lawful basis for doing so and we have notified you.

How long do we keep this information?

We retain Personal Data in compliance with our Retention Policy and Schedule for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements. Our Retention Policy and Schedule are available www.scattergoods.co.uk.

How do we keep this information secure?

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal information from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal information to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your personal information on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected data security breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected breach where we are legally required to do so.

What rights do you have?

Data Subjects are entitled to request that we erase, restrict, rectify or provide you with a copy of the data we hold, and may object to processing activities.

It is our policy to fulfil any such request within the statutory period of one month unless there is a compelling legal or contractual obligation which prevents us from doing so.

To make any such request please contact our officers responsible for data protection:

- Karen Elson – karen@scattergoods.co.uk – 01483 461 963
- Darren O’Leary – darren@scattergoods.co.uk – 01483 461 950

You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the UK’s data regulator, the Information Commissioner’s Office. Visit www.ico.org for more information.
